

Alive

magazine

*by young women,
for young women*

Guidelines for Contributing Writers

Alive Magazine is devoted to promoting positive media and artwork created by young women in the format of an online magazine. All published pieces should reflect AM's commitment to encouraging and empowering young women, and the editors of AM reserve the right not to publish submissions that conflict with our mission and vision statements.

Written Submissions: General Guidelines

- Pieces accepted for publication must fit an existing column or feature section [see list below], and will be assigned accordingly by the Managing Editor.
- Fictional pieces should focus on issues relating to young women and their development, and will be published less frequently than non-fiction pieces.
- Non-fiction submissions should always have a narrative component, even when research-based. Mediums can include, but are not limited to, poetry, essays, journal entries, editorials, travelogues, and newsfeatures (with elements of personal narrative).
- Profanity will not be allowed in submissions accepted for publication, and appropriate changes will be suggested and/or approved by the Managing Editor and Executive Director.
- Submissions should generally be between 400 and 2000 words, although exceptions may be granted by the Managing Editor under certain circumstances.
- For guidelines specific to poetry, see "Guidelines for Poetry."

Submission Procedure

- Submissions must include contact information, including name, mailing address, telephone number, E-mail address, and age (if over 25, just note 25+).
- Send submissions to contribute@alivemagazine.org, or to: Alive Magazine c/o Managing Editor, 1720 Madison St. NE Suite 300, Minneapolis, MN 55413.

What Happens Next

- Each submission is reviewed by our editorial team.
- If your submission is chosen to move on to the workshopping & editing phase, we will contact you to:
  - Sign a usage permission release form
  - Make edits, as determined by your editor
  - Set deadlines
- Once the piece goes through the workshopping & editing phase, our editorial team will revisit your piece and decide if and where it will be published (Web site or magazine).

Frequently Asked Questions

How is my story chosen?

We choose written works for publication in AM based on quality of writing, relevance of content (timeliness, level of interest to young women) and voice. We do not choose submissions that denigrate groups of people, customs, ideas, or religions. We give preference to personal narratives with engaging and unique topics or writing styles.

What is the difference between Alive Magazine and the AM Web site?

When we went all-online in 2007, we didn't want to be just another blog or magazine on the Web. We wanted to offer our readers timely content, but also reserve the chance to incorporate artwork and stories in a similar way as we do with our print magazine. So, we have the best of both worlds: new articles twice a week on our homepage, plus a fully designed magazine every other month.

Who can contribute written work to Alive Magazine?

If you are a female, ages 25 and under, you can contribute stories for all of our columns except Mister and Listen. Listen is reserved for writers (male or female) over 25, and Mister is reserved for male columnists ages 25 and under.

Alive

magazine

*by young women,
for young women*

Departments and Feature Sections (Web site and magazine)

Features (typically longer pieces)

Discover	What makes you come alive?
Explore	Tales of travel and adventure
Give	Stories of service and volunteering
Aim	Inspiring successes, curious ambitions, and unique interests
Mend	Picking up the pieces when life falls apart
Consider	News-related stories relevant to you and your world

Departments (usually shorter than feature pieces, although not always)

Muse	Original poetry and fresh lyrics
Buzz	Untangling the Web: technology-related articles
Groove	Music, dance and other inspiring sounds
Flex	Sensible guidance to strengthen your mind and body
Flair	Creative styles and ideas for adding a personal flair to current trends
Believe	Finding God in unexpected places
Listen	Perspectives on life from someone older and wiser [reserved for women or men 25+]
Wonder	Answers to life's hard-to-ask questions
Imagine	How would you change the world, if given the opportunity?
Spend	Where to spend your money wisely and effectively
Taste	Favorite dorm recipes, easy snack ideas and cafeteria creations
Mister	Life from his perspective [reserved for men of any age, generally 25 or under]
Mischief	Tales of fiction and truth, silly shenanigans and friendly foolery

